

The Thomas Brothers' Report
The Thomas and Beven Heir's Letters

Victor J. Barajas
California State University, San Marcos – Intern Student
Professor Dr. Kimber Quinney
Escondido History Center
Executive Director Cynthia Castañeda
April 18th, 2025

As a history student at California State University, San Marcos, currently interning as a Museum Archival at Escondido History Center, I have been analyzing historical photographs of Thomas' family members by using bulletins to contextualize their significance. This report aims to list the chronological order of the historical events that the Thomas brothers acted before and after moving to Escondido, CA.

Report:

- Wisconsin Soldiers' Home
 - A certification of Hamilton Airhart through payment of 10 cents entitled to "Share in the Soldiers Home."
 - This certification was offered in Milwaukee in 1865
 - Something to consider is that the American Civil War ended on April 9th, 1865.
- November 4th, 1893
 - This is a letter written by one of the Thomas Brothers.
 - Maresfield Park, Uckfield, Sussex
 - "My dear nephew
 - Your very welcome letter to thank I was extremely glad to hear from you and to know you are all well likewise ihain well. I was glad to hear you had been to your old home and farm at Wisconsin and hope you are feeling the letter for your long journey I know a visit thiner would b.... many things very visiting to you mind of the day of your father and mother it Brings Amorsea.
 -
- November 24th, 1894
 - This is a letter written by one of the Thomas Brothers.
 - Maresfield Park, Uckfield, Sussex
 - "My Dear Nephew
 - I thank you very much for the photos which arrived quite safely and I must say we are highly delighted with them and of yours we have but on to Aunt Alice. She will I know be nearly distract with it. The others will remains here for inspection only not to leave our keepy. We have not yet got them framed but soon shall have them having upon our wall. I received a letter for John only two days since he informed me he had moved to Los Angeles. William is likewise there too. I'm glad to hear they are doing well of course they know a good may of them busy in business there before. I was very sorely to hear of Richard b...y so very unwell but hope he will now renown. Sirerytn and be alright again though and we have not seen any of you except Sarah and Mary we feell for you all by I we have you and John. His to letter s.... and your ... very Nal.... thing in our home. Now we want Richard and William and ... of them sisters we should like them all thorough you own so far away we we tall c of your daily. I do think a voyage to England would do Richard much good what I mean would ... his health we should be might... glad to see him and you or included any of you. I was sorry to hear of Mr. Benan's death I had a very kind feeling for him being so kind or to my poor Mary he is now free of earthly troubles. Now while I think of you and Richard I think of Curing own to see us the best thim to be in England would be may or ... not to see this burring see of Beers working battling Amy which shall haun the first marker or the first in Engineering or anything else very shasp work what shall I say of times mom there I have. Well your..."

- December 24th, 1945
 - A funeral letter of John R. Thomas' deceased sister, Jennie Elizabeth Brown
 - Lived from April 2nd, 1858, to December 24th, 1945
 - A letter that she passed away on Christmas Eve and lists the names of those who were comforted through sympathy and prayers:
 - Arthur J. Brown, Arthur J. Brown Jr., Agnes B. Stuart, Elliot R. Brown, and Eleanor G. Brown.
 - On the front of the funeral letter, there's a post that has an inscription that states the following:
 - "To Ma's dad (J.R. Thomas) from his sister, Jenny"
- July 12th, 1966
 - A letter from Frances & Lewis to Marguerite and Jack
 - She first explains about her pets, Rowdy and Kitty, a dog and a cat
 - She wants to give the photo to the Union Title Museum to copy, since she notes that the museums and library of San Diego County do an excellent job of doing their work, which is best for the picture of Marguerite's dad, Richard A. Thomas, to be held.
 - Frances declares that she started to write the history of the Thomas Brothers and their part in the early development of Escondido since no one has ever written anything about them yet.
 - Frances contacted Lloyd Turrentine to see if he has any information or pictures of his grandfather, G. V. Thomas, yet he has none.
 - She plans to contact Florence Ramey to see more information about her father and G.V. Thomas working together in Escondido Lumber Hay & Grain Co.
 - She wants to hear more about Marguerite and Orletta's side of their story to piece up together the puzzles of their parents, the Thomas Brothers.
 - Frances asks Marguerite if it's okay to have the photo of Richard A. Thomas copy by the Union Title Museum so that it may become part of history.
- July 27th, 1966

- A letter from Frances to Marguerite
- Claims that she receives something from Marguerite
- Frances states that the Thomas Brothers played a role in the early development of Escondido's history, which is ironic because they are not yet mentioned in history.
- Frances took this matter to the Chamber of Commerce
 - They offered Frances a big wall of space in the new Chamber of Commerce so that she may use it however she wanted to reveal the history of the Thomas Brothers.
 - Frances thought that pictures of the Thomas Brothers' pictures should be a good use to put on the big wall.
- Frances contacted Lloyd Turrentine but found out that no one knew much about George V. Thomas
 - Claim that the Thomas family wasn't proud of George V.:
 - Become a sourpuss since he lost the City Mayor election
- Frances wants to contact Florence Ramey Howell
 - There might be more information on George V. from Lumber Hay & Grain Co.
- Claims that she gets many calls from clubs and schools to give a talk about the early history of Escondido, in which she talks about the Thomas Brothers.
- Frances asks if Marguerite and the other girls know any about "the street car tracks and "contraption" that ran up Grand Ave in 1888."
- Frances wants to write her family's history, the Thomas Brothers
- Frances claims that the Thomas, Beven, and Dixon families played a key role in the development of Escondido.
- Frances claims that she's going on a trip in September
 - Doesn't specify where she's heading to
- Frances also claims that she hopes that Jack is in the "pink of condition."
- Frances declares that Georgia is recovering from her operation, which she had a lot of operations that cut her as open as she was.
- August 29th, 1966
 - A letter from Frances B. Ryan to Marguerite
 - Declares that she has received a lot of the pictures of the Thomas Brothers except for J. R. Thomas.
 - She planning to give the old pictures to the San Diego Historical Society
 - She attempted to contact the First National Bank of San Diego to print a new brochure for San Diego's 200th celebration in 1969, yet they would contact her once she came back from her trip to San Diego.
 - Frances B. Ryan is asking Marguerite for more information about the Thomas Brothers, especially:
 - When did the Thomas Brothers leave Escondido?

- Did G. V. Thomas also work alongside with J. R. Thomas at the Escondido Land & Town Co.?
 - Frances declares that W. W Thomas was the Supt-Manager of the Escondido Land & Town Co., while J. R. Thomas was the Secretary
 - Frances declares to Marguerite that his father was on the board of Directors yet was busy with banking in San Diego.
 - R. A. was considered by Frances B. Ryan to become the spearhead of the “Thomas Brothers.”
 - Frances declares that Lloyd Turrentine claims that his grandfather, G. V., left a file full of bickering letters with the inscription that he was sending it from Wisconsin.
 - On the left side of the letter, there’s a writing message that states the following:
 - “I believe you said C. E. died early. Do you know the date? So Orletta & J. R.’s daughter? I know...”
- September 5th, 1966
 - A letter from Maggie to Frances
 - Maggie offers the letters and contents that contain the information and questions about the First National Bank and Richard A. Thomas
 - Maggie claims to be Richard A. Thomas’ daughter
 - She claims that Frances B. Ryan wants information about the Thomas Brothers and Escondido
 - Maggie gives all the letters and information of the Thomas Brothers to Frances but will want them back once she finishes analyzing.
 - Behind the letter, she offers a list of the Thomas Brothers
 - Richard A. Thomas
 - John R. Thomas
 - George V. Thomas
 - William W. Thomas
 - Charles E. Thomas
 - Maggie asks Frances for more updated details of the Thomas Brothers that her mother might know.
 - On the top of the front page of the letter, there’s a printed message that states the following:
 - “MRS. J. A. MACKECHNIE • 3161 MENLO DRIVE • GLENDALE 8, CALIFORNIA”
- September 8th, 1966
 - A letter from Frances Beven Ryan to Orletta and Frances
 - Marguerite talked to Frances B. Ryan about recognizing the Thomas Brothers’ involvement in Escondido, CA.
 - Frances B. Ryan mentions that the Thomas Brothers were not mentioned in the early history of Escondido during Escondido’s celebration of its 75th birthday in October 1963, but they only knew of the existence of Escondido Land & Town Co.

- She also mentions that the First National Bank didn't mention R. A. Thomas
 - She went to talk with the President of the First National Bank of the time, Blakemore, to convince him of the omission easily
 - She wants to write and give more information about the Thomas Brothers in San Diego to reveal its history within the early foundation of Escondido.
 - Marguerite mentions to Frances B. Ryan that Orletta and Frances had maps, letters, and pictures of the Thomas Brothers
 - J. R. Thomas was the Secretary of the Escondido Land & Town Co., which he had more information compared to the rest of the Thomas Brothers.
 - Frances B. Ryan is planning to go on a trip to Africa three weeks since this letter was typed, sailing from San Francisco
 - She wants to receive those letters, maps, and old pictures of the Thomas Brothers, which she wants to use to reveal the Thomas Brothers' early history of Escondido.
 - She specifically asked Orletta and Frances for the picture of J. R. Thomas to complete the set for all five brothers.
 - Below the letter, there's a typed name and address that states the following:
 - "Frances Beven Ryan, Route 4, Box 922, Escondido, California, 92025"
 - On the front side of the letter, there's a typed name and address that states the following:
 - "Mrs. Ray Kilwin, 17620 Haynes Street, Van Nuys, Calif. 91406"
- September 25th, 1966
 - A letter from Frances, Lewis, Rowdy, and Kitty to Orletta and Earl
 - Frances claimed that they spent their time at the University of California, San Diego (UCSD) to trace the historical value of the maps and title papers.
 - The information that they found is that the map of the Rancho Rincon del Diablo is present in Escondido
 - Maps of both University Height and Pacific Beach are of interest to San Diego
 - The interest is that these maps were used by the Escondido Land and Town Company's office in Escondido, CA in 1886.
 - Mr. Sully, the assistant of the UCSD Chancellor, suggested to Frances and Lewis that the papers and maps become part of the display, which would be on a short-term loan.
 - The plan is to restore the maps and then be put in the local Chamber of Commerce
 - Mr. Sully telephoned the La Jolla office to take their works of map restoration, which both Frances and Lewis would work together to restore the map, which made an excellent job
 - Below the letter, there's a message written that states the following:

- “Hope you folks and Fred get together on Arizona morning expedition. Come visit us again (after our return). Sincerely --- The Ryans --- Frances, Lewis, Rowdy, + Kitty.”
- April 14, 1967
 - Typed by Frances Beven Ryan
 - Preface
 - Richard A. Thomas, the spearhead of the five Thomas Brothers, came to San Diego from Kansas in 1882.
 - R. A., J. R., and C.E. Thomas were promoters in the development of San Diego and got interested in expanding San Diego County by focusing on Escondido and San Marcos in 1884
 - The Escondido Land Company bought the Rancho Rincon del Diablo
 - 12,814-acre tract
 - The plan was to subdivide the valley into farms and lay out a townsite in the center.
 - The Escondido Land & Town Company was reorganized on March 1st, 1886
 - William W. Thomas was Superintendent, John R. Thomas was Secretary
 - Directors of the First National Bank of San Diego
 - J. Gruendike, Richard A. Thomas, O. S. Hubbell, and others
 - G. V. Thomas, the youngest brother, arrived in Escondido and worked the rest of his life
 - The Bank of Escondido
 - William W. Thomas was the president, and J. H. Anderson was the cashier when the bank opened
 - Things that Frances B. Ryan mentions that involved the Thomas Brothers
 - The townsite was surveyed by lots, street names, and Grand Ave. trolly rails laid in 1886
 - Escondido Hotel was built
 - The Escondido College was started by land endowments under the University of Southern California (USC)
 - The Methodist Episcopal Church, alongside other churches, was planned
 - The railroad was assured
 - The city water system installed
 - The Escondido Land & Town Co. built several model brick homes.

- Escondido was incorporated on October 8th, 1888.
- Escondido Times – Vol. I, No I – Published by Frances B. on August 1966
 - Richard A. Thomas was the spearhead of the Escondido Land Company in 1884
 - Later on reorganized as Escondido Land & Town Co. on March 1st, 1886
 - He published the first advertisement of Escondido in the ESCONDIDO TIMES Vol. 1, No. 1 on November 4th, 1886.
 - Richard kept the prized copy and wished to give it to his brother-in-law, Albert Beven, who worked for him pioneering in San Diego and Escondido since 1887.
 - Marguerite Thomas Meckechnie, youngest daughter of Richard A. Thomas, fulfilled his father's request after he passed away.
 - The Beven heirs presented the prized copy to be kept permanently in the TIMES-ADVOCATE after their father's death in April 1950 as a memorial of their uncle Richard A. Thomas and Father Albert Beven.
 - The Beven heirs:
 - A. Benjamin Beven, Executor
 - Frances Beven Ryan
 - Georgia Beven Wilson
 - William Frederick Beven
 - Lily Beven Eddy
 - Owner of the TIMES-ADVOCATE, Fred Speers, suggested the copy be framed and hung in the T.A. for the educational and enjoyment of the community
 - Below the letter, an inscription is written as follows:
 - "The new owner of the T.A. asked me to write the history of Vol. 1, No. 1 – Escondido Times. They plan an important place for it in their new building, with the above notation."
- Letter
 - Frances B. Ryan and her family arrived back home on March 1st, 1967, and listed personal problems:
 - Whit became ill and left home to go back to Ventura 2 weeks before arriving back
 - Georgia was hospitalized in Vista and was diagnosed that she has arthritis 3 weeks after staying in the hospital
 - Had a serious operation of kidney removal and a non-malignant growth in June.
 - Took her to Desert Hot Spring to have a mineral bath that would prevent her from using a wheelchair

- Took Ben to San Diego hospital for 3 days to cure severe diarrhea.
 - The rest are in good shape, had a cold in Portugal, but recovered well.
- Frances B. Ryan went to the First National Bank, where she took Orletta's 3 cards of the 1880s record of the Bank to correct the 19606 brochures (The Thomas Brothers were not mentioned), which she talked to the following people:
 - Pres. Blakemore, Andy Borthwick, and Mr. Sigart.
- Pres. Blakemore apologized to Frances for not mentioning the Thomas Brothers, especially Richard A. Thomas, which he only assured to reprint and re-correct the information when another event comes by within the magazines.
- Ms. Kinney, the secretary, indicates that no one had known anything about Richard A. Thomas, regarding if they had done any research about it.
- Frances wrote to SD Historical Old Timers Club to ask them if they knew anything about the Thomas Brothers, and she plans to offer all of the letters and information of the Thomas Brothers during June or July.
- Explains her trip to Africa and viewing the wild animals, African people, and the conflict among White and Black people in the region.
- In the letter, she offers a copy of the letter between Marguerite and Orletta and a Block Print of the Chamber of Commerce for Escondido's 75th Birthday in 1963.
 - Letter between Marguerite and Orletta
 - Marguerite updates information about Fred on their trip to Arizona and plans to use Orletta's map and papers to stir enthusiasm for the building of the Museum of Escondido.
 - Marguerite mentions the new owner of Times Advocate, Mr. Appleby, who he offers his editorial on March 30th.
 - Also mentions the Ryans couple on showing the historical map of the city that dated since 1886 that was hanged in the office of the Escondido Land & Town Co.
 - Marguerite suggested for the rebuilding of the office of Escondido Land & Town Co. as a historical place

- Also suggested the rebuilding of the barn, corral and blacksmith shop of the Thomas (Eureka) Ranch as part of the historical era of Escondido Valley.
 - Escondido's Trolley "Contraption" of 1888
 - It was printed by Lewis Carleton Ryan in 1963, in which he listed the witnesses of the "Contraption":
 - Paul Hatch
 - Mary Rockwood Peet
 - Albert Beven
 - William W. Thomas (President of the Escondido Land & Town Co.)
 - It lists that the Grand Avenue trolley transportation and the advertisement to sell lots in Escondido were part of the plan by the Escondido Land & Town Co.
 - The steel rails were already present, yet the trolley cars were ordered to arrive in Escondido on July 4th, 1888, which Albert Beven and the Thomas Brothers hurried to build a "contraption"
 - William W. Thomas, president of the Escondido Land & Town Co. at the time, had a meeting with the City Trustees in February 1889, where he declared that he removed the tracks to widen Grand Ave. to be widened.
 - Albert Beven took up the rails for Thomas
 - Few of the rails were left in the street at the foot of the Hotel Hill until the Grand Ave. was paved, others were returned for mine use.
 - The cars that were bought were returned to the factory, ending Escondido's Grand Avenue Trolley "Contraption"
- June 2nd, 1968
 - A letter from Frances and Lewis Ryan to Orletta
 - Frances wanted to let Orletta know she and Lewis would introduce the Thomas Brothers to the Escondidians.
 - Frances notes that Lewis had a prostate gland removal operation on March
 - Frances asks Orletta how Earl is, must be Orletta's partner
 - Frances asks Orletta if she's going to visit them.
 - The letter has a printed message that states the following:
 - "The signatures are tracings of their own handwriting taken from an old Escondido Register."
- October 2nd, 1969

- Another letter from Frances and Lewis Ryan to Orletta and Earl (her husband)
- Frances and Lewis claim that the city of Escondido may have a plan to construct a museum, which their dads planned out for a new, enlarged Civic center that includes a museum.
- Frances is hoping to serve the planning committee whenever the museum starts to construct.
- Frances is hoping that the Thomas Brothers' information, alongside the information of the Escondido Land and Town Co., may be useful to become part of the early history of Escondido.
- Frances stated that she plans to celebrate Escondido's 81st birthday on October 8th:
 - 17 enlarged posters of the early days of Escondido from Pre Pre-Columbian era to the 1890s.
- Frances sent two large boxes of used Christmas cards of 1969 to the children of Tarawa in the care of the Sister in the Catholic Mission
- Frances and Lewis claim to have had Hong Kong flu after they arrived on their trip and had pneumonia for the whole month of March, but are now in good health.
- In front of the letter, there's a portrait sketch of a wooden house near a pond with some animals from Africa, with a small inscription on the bottom right that states:
 - "Mkuzi Game Reserve, Zululand"
- On the back of the letter, there's a printed address that states the following:
 - "P.O. Box 662, Pietermaritzburg, Natal, South Africa"
 - "Printed by L. Backhouse"
 - A logo appears that has an inscription surrounding the logo that states the following:
 - "Natal Parks Game & Fish Preservation Board"
- July 22nd, 1970
 - A letter from Virginia to Orletta (also known as Mrs. Earl Starr)
 - Virginia typed this letter to Orletta in Georgia, claiming that a second hurricane hit the state but was now raining.
 - Virginia claims that she has been thinking of her whenever she reads some books that involve the topic of the desert
 - For example, the Desert Magazines and the Los Angeles Examiner, in which share information about the nearby desert of Escondido and the Salton Sea area
 - The Imperial County
 - Virginia recalls an experience with Orletta regarding of throwing a garbage dump into the Salton Sea from the train, which the fish were feeding the dump.

- That was the method by which passengers were to dispose of garbage dumped from the train into the Salton Sea, which boomed the fish population
 - This would benefit both Mexican and Native American inhabitants surrounding the area
- Virginia claims that her father had an interest in railroad construction and service and decided to form a team to form a railroad company, which he envisioned the following:
 - Put cars from the trains that are dedicated to women with children and cars for women only
 - Both types of cars would have stewardesses, registered nurses, and inexpensive diners with low-priced meal and snack bars.
- Virginia claims that there was a private car in the train that was only meant for a specific crew, which many were Masons
- Virginia asks Orletta if she's going to write a biography of his father (John R. Thomas)
 - States that her father refers to John R. Thomas as "the Prince."
- Virginia recalls John R. Thomas' story:
 - John would spend his time shooting buffalo
- Virginia explains to Orletta her experience with the facts of buffalo in South Dakota that she learned with Louis.
- On the front of the envelope, there's a written phrase that states the following:
 - "Mrs. Earl Starr, 27849 Lost Spring Road, Saugus, California 91350"
- Behind the envelope, there's another written address that states the following:
 - "P.O. Box 11562, St Petersburg, FLA. 38733"
- October 22nd, 1971
 - A letter from Frances and Lewis Ryan to Orletta and Earl
 - It's an updated report about the progress of Escondido's history that Frances wanted to share with Orletta since September 9th.
 - The subdividers gave the City of Escondido a little 1894 library in May, which was planned to be torn down in the first place. The building was later moved to Grape Day Park
 - Sears store donated gallons of paint
 - Restoration was made
 - The mini 1894 library was rededicated into Escondido's mini museum on September 9th.
 - The plan is for time to pass by to let the museum grow and add maps, abstracts, and pictures for the early history of Escondido.
 - Frances' activities that she reports:
 - She worked on the building & restoration committee

- Palomar College wanted her help in teaching a community service course in the early days in Escondido
 - Both Frances and Lewis focused on making slides of around 500 old photos and taping commentaries.
 - Both Palomar College and Sears were working together to establish a conference room for the class to learn more about the early history of Escondido.
- Frances notes about the rain that happened after writing this letter
- She later notes that she and Lewis went to a dental clinic, where Frances got her gold crown
- Frances also asked Orletta about their conditions during an earthquake, which wasn't bad in Escondido.
- Alongside the letter, an advertisement of the Early Days in Escondido is sponsored by Palomar College:
 - It offered a short four-week course study of the history of Escondido.
 - The meeting would take place in the Sears Conference Room on September 16th on every Thursdays evening from 7:30 to 9:30.
 - A picture of Frances and Lewis Ryan appeared in the advertisement, both holding an old picture of the early history of Escondido, who are to present the course.
- June 19th, 1972
 - A typed letter from Frances B. Ryan to Frances Kelvin
 - She's asking if she could get more information about her mother's passing to share the information to the local Times-Advocate newspaper.
 - She wants to know more information about how long the Thomas brothers arrived and lived in Escondido and know more if Orletta attended a school in Escondido.
 - She will try her best to add more information, especially about John A. Thomas as the secretary of the Escondido Land & Town Co.
 - In front of the letter, there's a typed inscription that states the following:
 - "Frances Kelvin, 17620 Haynes St., Van Nuys, CA 91406"
 - On the left side of the letter, there's a sticker with the name and address that states the following:
 - "Frances B. & Lewis C. Ryan, Rt. 6, 3429 Valley Center Rd., Escondido, California 92025"
- July 10th, 1972
 - A letter from Frances Kelvin to Frances and Lewis Ryan
 - A written word that I'll type its words to easily understand its message:
 - "Dear Frances + Lewis:"
 - "I received a note in the mail today from the American Bible Soc. Acknowledging your gift in the name of our mother. I didn't want to be another day to go by without saying 'Thank you.' I know mom would be pleased, as she was very much intended in the war of the A.B.S."

- "This bump to my attention the land you sent me asking from more particulars about Mom's passing. I talked to my Dad about it and he was quite vague about any facts, and I'm sorry to Ray, so am I! Then I been quite lazy and let the day go by. The only information we could come up with is that she was born in San Diego and at an early age the family moved to Hollywood. I don't believe she lived in Escondido. They moved from there before she was born. I'm going through her papers we found a certificate of graduation for a grade school in Hollywood and her diploma from Hollywood High School, 1913. She attended normal school (later UCLA) and received her elementary leading credential in the 9 Jan '16. But didn't go into teaching as she become engaged to my father and they were married Oct 10, 1916. They lived in Hollywood about 5 yrs where Don Earl and Francis Adil were born. Moved to Eagle Rock (L.A. C.) and Elizabeth Wilma from there. I have her Grade School and High School diploma but have misplaced them!"
- "I will send them to you as soon as I clean house. My boss was good enough to give me a week off at work. That week we got together and helped Dad clear out personal belongings to. As he decided not to go back to his house in Sanjas. He has the house up for sale as the place is too big and too much yard work. He is staying with Don and Lyn right now. Don bought a small condominium for his Twendly Valley. An adult community in newhall, very close to where he had been living. He knows a lot of the businessmen there. He seems quite happy with the arrangement."
- "I am very much interested in your research and teaching of the Escondido history. If I come across any papers or books I will send them on to you."
- "Please keep in touch, Sincerely, Frances Kelvin"
- Below the letter, there's a written message that states as follows:
 - "Enclosed are a few papers I have come across."
- March 20th, 1986
 - A letter from Frances B. Ryan to Frances
 - She claims that she visited Margaret Zimmermann from February 24th to 26th to talk about their family history, especially the Thomas Brothers.
 - She got the materials of the Thomas Brothers and sent them to Zimmermann since she studied genealogy.
 - In it, she found an envelope of excerpts from John R. Thomas and Orletta
 - She got a Xerox copy of the envelope since Zimmermann needs the original since it's more valuable.
 - Both Frances has not contacted for a long time, gives the following update:

- Lewis passed away in 1982; Four years after becoming a widow since the letter was printed.
 - Below the letter contains a printed sticker that states the following:
 - “Frances B. Ryan, 3429 East Valley Parkway, Escondido, CA 92027, Tel. 745-0124”
 - In front of the letter, there’s a handwritten message that states the following:
 - “Frances: Hope you both are well. I’m forwarding this on because I know you while interested. Let sender know new address. Ray.”
 - Above the front letter, there’s a printed message that states the following:
 - “Mrs. Ray Kelwin, 17620 Haynes, Van Nuys, CA 91406”
- In this section, I will list the letters of the Thomas Brothers that does not include the dates on it:
 - A letter from Jennie Elizabeth Brown to John R. Thomas
 - “My dear Brother John,
 - I have been trying to write you ever since Distu Mary’s death, but I has seemed impossible for me to settle down to it. I know how much you must ... her for I do very much although I did not see her. But I know she was there and thought of her in her home, then too she would send messages Seorgia. I do not think any of us could wish her back to suffer as she did not only in Gody lent she had so much worry and anxiety. It did seem very had that she should have had that terrible so... about hraude.
 - It was almost worse than if hraude had died. I do hope she well get well. Seorgia is so much our my mind. She is wonderful but sometimes I wonder that she does not breah down under the You and I are the only ones left out of our longer family I wish I could see you. She owe thing I have missed all my life is that I have been so far away from my brothers and sisters and their families. Autumn did which he might be obliged to attend the Several Assembly which is to ... held in San Francisco next And if he did I was going with him but he thinks now what he will not have to go.
 - Eva and Ridge and Detta sfuit ...giving with us. They were the only relatives on sister side of the house what were near enough to come for dimes, Agnes and Harold are coming down for Christmas.
 - John Cullen ... has had several ... and he is now unable to speak, John A. says his father is like a child of five at Times. He was always such an active man and I – is very had for him to be so helpless with much love to you and franch and the girls.

- Affectionately your sister, Jennie”

○ A letter from ... to the Thomas Brothers

- “My dear Brother:
- I was very much pleased to hear from you again, if is true I have heard him all of you were having b... same of the others, w... I was glad